

October 7, 1976

VIA TELBECINDIAN FILMS, STARS, MAKERS TO CONCORDIA'S CCA INDIAN CINEMA OF TODAY PROGRAM

Beginning Saturday, October 9, and running through Tuesday, October 12, the Conservatory of Cinematographic Art will screen five films, all released last year.

There will be a visiting Indian delegation along with the films. The four member delegation will be at a press conference Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Faculty Club, 7th floor, Hall Bldg., de Maisonneuve at Bishop.

Oct. 9 9 p.m. Sansar Seementary (Tarum Majumdar, 1975)

Oct. 10 9 p.m. Chomma Dudi (1975)

Oct. 11 7 p.m. Arjun Pandit (Hrikesh Mukherjee, 1975)

9 p.m. Choti Si Baat (Basu Chatterji, 1975)

Oct. 12 8.30 p.m. Sonar Kella (Satyajit Ray, 1975)

Among those in the visiting delegation is A.K. Varma, who heads the Indian government's Film Festival Directorate. Varma has covered a range of international festivals from Cannes to Tashkent and is now involved in developing policy relating to press and film matters in the Indian government.

Also in the delegation is B.R. Chopra whose string of films successes as director is the envy of the industry. Chopra is also a widely published film critic and journalist and was a juror at the Berlin Festival.

Stage and screen star Sanjeev Kumar will come to Montreal. His films include "Sholay", "Arjun Pandit" (which will be screened Monday, Oct. 11 at 7 p.m.), "Mausam", "Seeta aur Geeta", "Anubhav" and "Dastak" in which he was cited for a number of film awards.

Actress Vidya Sinha will also come to Montreal and one of her films, "Choti-si-Baat", will also be screened on Monday, at 9 p.m. Sinha established her reputation early in her debut film role in "Rajnigandha".

More from the Conservatory of Cinematographic Art at 879-4349.

- 30 -

Joel McCormick
Information Officer
Concordia University
(879-8497)